

Importing Personal Property Into Cote d'Ivoire

HOUSEHOLD GOODS AND PERSONAL EFFECTS

CUSTOMS REGULATIONS AND REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

Customs Regulations:

ALERT: The EU has implemented sanctions against Cote d'Ivoire resulting in shipping lines suspending all bookings to and from the country. The Department of State urges US citizens living in Cote d'Ivoire to consider temporary departure due to the deteriorating political and economic situation. The U.S. Embassy in Abidjan remains in evacuation status following the ordered departure of all non-emergency personnel on December 20, 2010. All non-governmental financial institutions, representing approximately 93 percent of the country's bank accounts, have suspended operations as of February 18, 2011. Shortages of fuel, food, and other commodities as well as price increases, could result in severe hardship and a simultaneous upswing in civil disturbances and crime.

All shipments are subject to inspection. The customer must be present in the country during the clearance process. All personal effects (private, military) are subject to Customs tax based on CIF value. The value of the shipment must not exceed $4.00USD per pound gross. Shipments of personal effects and vehicles must have the weights accurately specified or one will incur additional costs, demurrage charges.

Delays at Customs for not having all documents into Customs are a minimum of 3 weeks. For Diplomatic air shipments it is essential to have the AWB copy in well advance for the Embassy or organization to process the diplomatic exemption timely. Destination Agents for either private or diplomatic shipments must have appropriate documents at least 8 days in advance of the shipments arrival.

NOTE: The Freight Invoice and the customer's Declaration of Exportation are imperative. These documents are utilized to establish the "Bordereau de suivi de cargaison" document (aka BSC) to begin the customs clearance process.

Safety & Security: U.S. citizens remaining in Cote d'Ivoire despite the Travel Warning are encouraged to enroll with the Smart Traveler Enrollment Program (STEP), by sending contact information including email and cell phone to CdiUnrestAmCitInquiry@state.gov, or by leaving a voice mail at the citizen security information line: +225 2249-4001. Citizens without Internet may also leave a brief message by calling that same number and following the prompts.

Given the unpredictable and tense situation in regions throughout the country, and the ongoing presence of two distinct military/peacekeeping forces, the Department of State urges U.S. citizens to exercise caution should they travel to Cote d’Ivoire, and to take special care when traveling outside Abidjan. Security conditions in the north and in the west can deteriorate without warning. Embassy personnel traveling to western Cote d’Ivoire are often required to use security escorts provided by the United Nations. U.S. citizens planning travel to Cote d'Ivoire should consult the Embassy or their host organization(s) for the most recent security assessment of the areas where they plan to travel. Crimes such as mugging, robbery, burglary, and carjacking pose the highest risk for foreign visitors in Abidjan. Documentation: Carry a photocopy of your U.S. passport, visa, and entry stamps. You should also carry your international driver’s license, especially if you plan to drive anywhere in Cote d’Ivoire. American driver’s licenses are not valid in Cote d’Ivoire. Government corruption remains a serious problem in Cote d’Ivoire, and has an impact on judicial proceedings, contract awards, customs, and tax issues. Uniformed security forces (police, military, gendarmes) routinely stop vehicles for traffic violations and security checks. If you are stopped, politely present your identification. Police and security officials rarely speak English. If you are stopped at one of these checkpoints and asked to pay a bribe, politely refuse and present your photocopy of your U.S. passport, visa, and entry stamp.

Taking pictures is prohibited near sensitive installations, including military sites, government buildings such as the radio and television stations, the Presidency building, the airport, and the DeGaulle and Houphouet-Boigny bridges in Abidjan.

Health: Malaria is a widespread yearlong health concern. Yellow Fever vaccination is a requirement for entry. Tuberculosis is an increasing serious health concern. Consult with your physician regarding immunization requirements.

Fumigation of Wood Packing Materials: As of this posting Ivory coast does not require ISPM15 regulations for wood packaging material (WPM).
