Importing Personal Property Into Bulgaria

HOUSEHOLD GOODS AND PERSONAL EFFECTS

CUSTOMS REGULATIONS AND REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

Customs Regulations:

IMPORTANT: Customer must be present at Customs Clearing House the day shipment is to clear Customs. On declared newly purchased items (less than 6 months old) abroad, duty and VAT is payable.

Household goods can be imported up to three months after customers arrival. USED housed and personal effects (six months old minimum) may be imported duty and VAT provided all required documents are in order and presented to customs. If you do not have a residence permit and your shipment has arrived at the Central Customs location in Sophia, Bulgaria, it is mandatory to pay a Customs Guaranty I order for your shipment to clear customs. The Customs Guaranty is a fiscal guarantee which Customs officials require in order to be sure a temporary residence will be established. The guaranty is payable in cash or by bank transfer and it is 25% on the DECLARED value of the shipment (5% tax + 20% VAT) for a total declared value of $1500.00 USD or less. This guarantee is reimbursable immediately after residence is established.

Returning Bulgarian citizens of non-diplomat status are eligible for duty and tax-free import of personal effects and one used vehicle provided that they have proof of residing abroad for at least one year.

NOTE: As of 19 August 2010 an EORI (Economic Operators Registration and Identification) number is required for all imports and exports to clear Customs in the European Union.

The requirement was introduced by the European Commission in July 2009 to enhance security. The EORI number must be used in all electronic communications with Customs Offices and other government agencies and departments. This number is valid in all EU member states and replaces ALL Customs identification numbers including the TIN (Traders Identification Number). All business operators and private individuals not established in the EU must obtain the EORI number from the authorities in the respective EU member state wherein the client intends to operate or reside. Please consult with your Destination Agent for further details and assistance.

Required Documents:

- Passport (copy)
- Work Permit (original)
- Certificate issued by the Ministry of the Interior with the identification number (Residence Permit)
