NOTES:

Entry & Exit Requirements: The Embassy of the Syria in Washington, DC, has not provided consular services since March 18, 2014. Those seeking visa information may visit the website of the Syrian Embassy for the most current information. As the U.S. Embassy in Damascus has suspended operations, U.S. citizens are reminded that the Czech Government, through the Czech Embassy in Damascus, currently serves as the Protecting Power for U.S. interests in Syria.

Syrian-American men or American men of Syrian origin, even those born in the United States, may be subject to military service unless they receive a temporary or permanent exemption from a Syrian diplomatic mission abroad prior to their entry into Syria.

The Syrian government enforces restrictions on prior travel to Israel, and does not allow persons with passports bearing Israeli visas or entry/exit stamps to enter the country. Likewise, the absence of entry stamps from a country adjacent to Israel, which the traveler has just visited, will cause Syrian immigration officials to refuse admittance. Overland entry into Syria directly from Israel is not possible. U.S. citizens suspected of having traveled to Israel have been detained for questioning. Syrian security officials are also sensitive about travel to Iraq. All U.S. citizens should always ensure that passports and important personal papers are in order in the event it becomes necessary to leave the country quickly.

Safety & Security: The Department of State continues to warn U.S. citizens against travel to Syria and strongly recommends that U.S. citizens remaining in Syria depart immediately. There is an ongoing and increased risk of kidnapping of U.S. citizens and Westerners in general throughout the country. U.S. citizens remain a specific target. Security personnel frequently place foreign visitors under surveillance.

US citizens are encouraged to enroll in the Smart Traveler Enrollment Program, to stay current with the latest safety and security announcements dispersed by the Embassy in your area. Your enrollment can also help the Department of State reach your family and friends in case of emergency.

Crime: The current unrest and significant deterioration of the Syrian economy have led to a perceived increase in criminal activity. Since the closure of the Embassy in Damascus in 2012, accurate information about crime to U.S. citizens visiting or living in Syria is difficult to measure.

Health: HIV/AIDS entry restrictions exist for visitors or foreign residents of Syria. AIDS tests are mandatory for foreigners from ages 15 to 60. The AIDS test must be conducted in Syria at a facility approved by the Syrian Ministry of Health. A residence permit will not be issued until the absence of the HIV virus has been determined. There are reports of recent Polio and Measles outbreaks.

Currency: Foreign currencies can be exchanged for Syrian pounds by licensed money changers, the Commercial Bank of Syria (CBS), the Real Estate Bank, and at private banks, some of which maintain offices inside four and five star hotels. These hotels and high-end stores generally accept credit cards. Most restaurants and shops operate in cash. Foreigners visiting Syria are required to pay hotel bills in U.S. dollars, Euros or other non-Syrian hard currency. Private banks with ATMs in most major cities usually honor major debit/credit systems.

Fumigation of Wood Packing Materials: Importation of shipments containing wood packing materials must be in accordance with ISPM 15 requirements and are required to have the wood fumigation mark ISPM 15 and IPPC logo. Shipment MUST have a valid Fumigation Certificate covering any wood packing materials.
